

TILDE Cod.1502 (Plain quality)

A bouclé plain defines TILDE through a soft, compact textural surface built on a finely colored warp and an off-white bouclé weft that shapes its softly looped relief. Woven predominantly in cotton, the fabric develops a calm and luminous ground, where subtle depth emerges from the interplay of tone and texture.

The hand is full, soft, and composed, with a body that supports volume and maintains a balanced presence across upholstered forms and soft furnishings. Beneath the off-white surface, deeper underlying tones lend gentle shadow and dimensionality, giving the fabric a quiet visual movement that remains restrained and architectural.

TILDE lends itself naturally to armchairs, sofas, poufs, cushions, headboards, heavy drapery, plaids, and bed covers, offering a versatile plain that anchors interiors with warmth and material richness.

Developed on the same loom as LYKKE and FORMA, TILDE acts as their natural counterpoint, extending the bouclé ground and allowing their jacquard geometries to transition seamlessly into quieter textile fields.

TILDE introduces a tactile bouclé into interior settings with a soft, balanced, and quietly expressive presence.
