

ORIGO Cod.3401

From the Latin word for origin, ORIGO speaks of beginnings, where noble and regenerated fibers meet in a refined expression of craftsmanship. Its fine, irregular stripes create a quiet cadence, revealing a surface alive with natural rhythm and tactile depth. Linen brings light and freshness, wool lends softness and body, while the yarns with recycled fibers contribute strength and a sense of mindful renewal. The subtle play of these materials forms a gentle relief reminiscent of seersucker fabric, where differential tension in the weave brings the surface quietly to life, giving ORIGO its refined texture and distinctive hand. Softly transparent yet full of presence, ORIGO captures light with natural grace and warmth, an expression of balance and tactility that reflects the pure essence of weaving.
